PROJECTS

Central Washington University (CWU) Student Price Index (SPI) Project 09/2021 – Present

- The project develops a price index of the cost of college living in Ellensburg, Washington, using methods consistent with that of the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS).
- As the Principal Investigator (PI), I advise a team of 10-15 students on collecting and cleaning monthly price data, creating campus-wide surveys and monthly reports, analyzing price and survey data, applying to grants, and presenting at various venues.
- The project has been presented at conferences (PNREC, SOURCE, Economic Outlook Conference) and featured in media outlets (The Voyage, The Pulse, Daily Record).
